DESCRIBES LIFE IN TRENCHES

Lieut. Peat Entertains and Impresses Audience With Humorous And Horrible Side of War

The Rush county chautauqua closed yesterday with the biggest crowd in the history of the assembly with the exception of the day William Jennings Bryan spoke here a few years ago. Almost fifteen hundred single admission tickets were sold Sunday, which was known as "War Sunday."

It was not "War Sunday" in name only; it was in reality a day when the seriousness of the war was impressed on the twenty-five hundred or more persons present by an analysis of the causes and the present status of the war by Senator James E. Watson and a description of actual warfare as it is conducted in the twentieth century by a man who saw service in the trenches in Flanders for two years.

Senator Watson was frequently applauded during his speech and when he appeared on the stage while being introduced, a flood of applause interrupted Dr. Ellis who was speaking.

Senator Watson declared that "age old ideas as broad as humanity and as deep as the ages are involved in the war." He recalled that the year Napoleon met his Waterloo—1815—Otto Von Bismarck was born in Germany and within 40 years was the world's greatest diplomat. It was he, the senator said, who shaped German thought based on a false philosophy, which is largely responsible for this war. He showed by reading from German histories that duplicity, fraud and deceit are the very essence of German diplomacy.

"But America changed this," he declared. "We stood for shirt-sleeve diplomacy. We announced that we proposed to say what we meant in as few words as possible and back it up by going to war if necessary."

The senator asserted that the whole campaign of intrigue in Germany was founded on the religious belief that God is leading them in every act of this war. He showed that it is the philosophy of

NEXT SOCIAL WILL BE HELD AT MANILLA

Rushville Merchants Will Start Community Socials Again Since Chautauqua Closed

ONE AT PLUM CREEK AUG. 31

Now that the chautauqua is over, Rushville merchants are making plans for the balance of the community festivals which are to be held this month and next. The social for this week will take place at Manilla on Wednesday night. The merchants are preparing to take a large crowd and John A. Titworth will make a short talk.

"Since coming to Indiana and before in hundreds of letters I was apprised that this was not a popular war," said Senator Watson. "I voted for this war and I felt it my duty to find out if it were true. I did learn it was so for certain well defined reasons, but that when the results of these reasons are explained, the reasons will disappear.

"This is not a popular war because no army is marching upon us and no navy is training its guns on our shores. It is not a popular war because the reasons for the war have not been clearly defined from an American standpoint.

STOCKHOLDERS WILL MEET

Modern Appliance Co. Officers Will Make Reports Tuesday, 8 P. M.

"We did not go to war to establish the route of the railroad to Bagdad; we did not go to war to fix the boundary of Alsace-Lorraine; we did not go to war to free the Irish from the iron rule of England; we did not go to war because we were attacked by Germany. We did not attack Germany. She murdered our citizens at sea. She marked off a space 1,400 miles wide and said all ships looked alike to her, whether they be English battleships to destroy German vessels or Red Cross ships of mercy. This is not a war of aggression; it is not a war for indemnities; rather it is a war for the freedom of the seas.

"That is primarily the reason for the United States going to war, but I want it to ring through the chambers of the soul of every American boy who is making a sacrifice for his country that he is fighting for America and the glory of the American flag. While we entered on this war for the preservation of American institutions and the sanctification of American lives and liberties, we have no right to say what sort of a government Germany shall set up. But we do have the right to follow up Germany when she attacks us, to fight her, disarm her, crush her and say that she shall not do anything like this to us again."

RUSH COUNTY BANNER WHEAT PRODUCING COUNTY IN THE STATE, ESTIMATES SHOW

Crop This Year Will Amount to 1,062,340 Bushels, Department of Agriculture Believes

NO OTHER COUNTY IS NEAR

Rush county led the state this year in the production of wheat, according to an estimate just made by the department of agriculture. The crop report estimates that this county produced 1,062,340 bushels of wheat in the harvest just closing. Rush county is so far ahead in the production of wheat that there is hardly any comparison with other counties.

Being the banner hog producing county of Indiana and one of the largest in the United States, the record for wheat speaks well for

A meeting of the stockholders of the Modern Appliance company has been called for Tuesday night at 8 o'clock in the assembly room of the court house. The meeting is important and all stockholders are urged to attend. A complete report of the officers will be made at this time and the financial condition of the company will be thoroughly explained to the stockholders. Individual letters were sent out today to the stockholders notifying them of the meeting.

The funeral services will be conducted at the late residence Wednesday morning at ten o'clock by the Rev. Mr. Schofield and burial will take place in East Hill.

TO BID FAREWELL TO THE TWO UNITS

Rush County Will Say Good-Bye to The Men Who Have Volunteer-ed on Friday Afternoon

MEETING ARRANGED FOR THEM

Governor Goodrich Will be Invited to Speak—Stores to Close During Celebration

Arrangements are being made to bid farewell to Company B and the medical detachment here next Friday afternoon. An invitation will be extended to Governor James P. Goodrich to speak.

The parting meeting will be held on the court house lawn, probably about three o'clock, when Rush county will say good-bye to the men who have volunteered and upheld the honor of the county.

Will M. Bliss has been appointed general chairman and he in turn appointed committees on finance, program, decorations and general arrangements. An effort will be made to have every store in Rushville closed during the ceremony. All business houses will be urged to decorate for the occasion.

The prospect is that this week will be the last in Rushville for Company B because it was one of the ten Indiana National Guard units certified to the federal government as ready to proceed to Hattiesburg, Miss., to help prepare Camp Shelby for the guardsmen of Indiana and Kentucky. Further evidence that Company B will soon depart is found in the fact that the company has been mustered into the federal service and all men have been given the federal physical examination.

The medical detachment may leave at any time. Saturday four of the officers were called to Indianapolis, which again gave rise to the story that the unit would likely be transferred to the state fair in 1918.

The conditions of the license required of the mills coming under the order is that only reasonable and customary charges shall be made for warehouse service, that no wheat shall be stored for more than thirty days without the approval of the food administration, that certain information as to receipts and shipments shall be supplied regularly. In addition to this the grain exchanges of the country are to be asked to suspend all dealings in wheat futures.

ONE MILL HERE IS AFFECTED BY ORDER

Food Administration Will Compel All With 100 Barrels Daily Capacity to Have License

$2 WHEAT APPLIES NEXT YEAR

Committee Will Establish Fair Price For This Year's Crop—Likely to be Reduced

Under the plan announced by the food administration for controlling wheat, flour and bread, all mills and elevators with a capacity of over 100 barrels daily will be compelled to take out a government license, effective September 1. The C. G. Clark and Son mill of this city will be affected by the order.

Local elevator men take the announcement to mean that if wheat prices do not stop their fluctuating the government will take over the whole 1917 crop and the measures just announced are a preparatory step in this direction.

Establishing of buying agencies at the principal terminals, licensing of elevators and mills, fixing of a price to be considered fair, regulation of the middle men and of grain exchanges, with the elimination of trading in futures are the chief features of the plan. It is pointed out that the minimum price of $2 a bushel for wheat does not affect the 1917 crop and is effective in 1918.

ALL BUT FOUR OUT OF NINETEEN EXAMINED THIS MORNING TAKEN

First of New Army to Start to Camp Sept. 5

By United Press

Washington, Aug. 13.—The national army will move to cantonments in three main increments—of thirty percent each, September 5, September 15 and September 30—the provost marshal general's office announced today.

The last ten per cent of the drafted men will follow as soon after September 30 as possible.

Drafted persons whose religious beliefs prohibit their making war will be forwarded to mobilization camps to make up part of the quota from their districts and will be assigned as non-combatants, Provost Marshal General Crowder announced today.

REGULAR ROUTINE OF DRILL RESUMED

All Members of Company B Apparently Recovered Today From Effects of Vaccinations

NO MORE EQUIPMENT IS HERE

Camp Edward H. Wolfe, Aug. 13.—The regular routine of drill and work was resumed here today, after several days rest on account of the various vaccinations. All of the men have apparently recovered from the effects of the vaccinations, excepting for a few sore arms.

The typhoid and paratyphoid vaccinations administered Saturday had its effects on the men Saturday night and Sunday. About twenty-five men were sick Saturday night and many were not feeling the best all day yesterday. But this morning the men appeared better and the regular program was followed.

The day was started with a hike into Rushville. For the most part the men were glad to be at work again. A vacation was declared at the camp Saturday afternoon and most of the company spent the afternoon and evening in Rushville. No more equipment has been received and there is nothing definite as to when it will be.

FIRST STEP TO LOWER THE PRICE OF BREAD

Hoover Begins Drive on High Prices Today—Second Step to Stabilize Canned Goods

NOTICE SENT WHEAT BARONS

Washington, Aug. 13.—Herbert Hoover today began his drive on high prices. His first effort is directed towards lowering and stabilizing the price of the American loaf. His next step will be to stabilize the price of canned goods, meats and other foodstuffs.

He started today by serving notice on wheat barons that he will vigorously enforce the food control bill. He called upon elevators and millers, distributors and bakers to restrict their margins of profits.

To insure response Hoover will issue licenses only to those elevators and millers who guarantee to charge a reasonable price, to store no wheat more than thirty days without his approval and to submit regular reports on receipts and shipments.

Floyd Kirklin of Muncie spent the week-end here with friends.

Physicians Find Percentage of Registrants Physically Fit Larger Than Any Day Yet.

NOT SO MANY FILE EXEMPTION

Board Receives Instructions Disclosing Every Exemption is Automatically Appealed.

DISTRICT BOARD MAY REOPEN

Man Refused Discharge May Cause Further Investigation of One Discharged Before Him.

The selection board resumed its work of examining men this morning and by noon had accepted fifteen out of the first nineteen examined. A total of forty men were ordered to report today. Of the fifteen accepted, many filed claims for exemption, but not nearly as many as in the first list examined. The board believed this was because many of the men examined today were not married.

The percentage of those physically fit today was higher than on any previous day. The men were being examined rapidly since the examining physicians have become better acquainted with the methods. Dr. C. H. Parsons is acting as the second physician member of the board in the absence of Dr. Logan, who is on a vacation.

The first fifteen men to pass the physical tests today were as follows: Virgil Simmerman, Rushville; Oliver Garrison, Carthage; Carl Bowden, Carthage; Ernest R. Warner, Manilla; Everett R. Waggoner, Mays, Clarence Boren, Rushville; Paul Foster, Rushville; Thurman Downs, Rushville; Hubert Innis, Rushville; Paul Glisson, Rushville; Glen M. Snelser, Falmouth; Donald Bottorff, Milroy; Carl Logan, New Salem; Samuel I. Black, Milroy; Lindley H. Clark, Carthage.

The four men to be discharged because of physical defects were Harvey F. Wolfe, Rushville; Jesse Stout, Rushville; Austin E. Rhoades, Arlington, and Jesse Garver, Lewisville.

Lindley H. Clark of Carthage, one of the men accepted, has been admitted to the second officers' training school at Ft. Harrison. Clark went through with the examination and appeared in an unusually happy frame of mind for a man about to be placed in the new army. The reason for his happiness was the fact that he has been admitted to the camp. He could have escaped the examination by bringing a certificate showing he was to take the course. He was enrolled in the camp from, Indianapolis.

The Rush county men who were congratulating themselves as being fortunate in obtaining discharges because of dependents were given a set-back today when a new ruling from the provost marshal was received stating that all of these cases were automatically appealed to the district board.

A. J. Gary, local appeal agent for the government, received instruction this morning which virtually means that every case in which a discharge is granted because of dependents is automatically appealed. The instructions point out that the district board may not necessarily take up each case, but where any question is asked or raised more affidavits regarding the dependency may be required.

It was further pointed out that anyone included in the draft can re-open a case disposed of by the local board. For instance, if a man drawn in the list believes he should have a discharge and is refused by the local board, he can re-open any of the cases heard before his. If one man was refused an exemption

BATTLE OF FLANDERS IN ITS THIRD WEEK

Sharp Brief Engagements Mark Last 48 Hours as Germans Try to Regain Lost Ground

FRENCH WIN BACK TRENCHES

(By United Press.)

London, Aug. 13.—The battle of Flanders entered its third week today with Field Marshal Haig's statement announcing "nothing of especial interest to report."

Sharp, brief engagements, however, have marked the past 48 hours as the Germans have endeavored to regain some of the ground taken by the British at the end of last week. The enemy has persistently endeavored to retake Westhoek ridge. The attacks have been broken up with heavy losses. Brisk fighting is still in progress on the Aisne front.

The French after repulsing most of these attacks have regained ground which was given up north of St. Quentin.

EXPECT ITALIAN ATTACK

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

London, Aug. 13.—The Austrians are hurrying re-enforcements to the Carso front, in anticipation of a strong Italian attack, reports received here today stated. Italian aeroplanes are extremely active on the Carso and other fronts.

ONLY ONE MILL HERE IS AFFECTED BY ORDER

The announcement also states that a fair price will be established for wheat. The president has approved the appointment of a committee to be selected from representatives of the producing sections and consuming elements in a community. This committee, in a short time will be assembled under the chairmanship of President Garfield of Williams College, and it will be the duty of this committee to determine a fair price for the 1917 harvest.

Therefore it will not be to the advantage of any farmer to hold his supply of wheat for a further advance in price, for he will do so at his own cost of storage and interest. The announcement intimated that if it were necessary the government would buy the entire wheat harvest in order to maintain the fair price to be determined by the committee.

It is the intentions of the food administration by establishing a fair price to be able to stabilize the price of wheat throughout the year and to eliminate the hazards of operation due to fluctuating prices. It is intimated in the announcement that the price to be established for wheat will not be nearly as high as that being paid at this time and thus the warning to the farmers not to hold their supply.

The Roadside Market.

The possibilities for the farmer of a roadside market are outlined in a bulletin written by Prof. C. C. Woodburg, chief in horticulture at Purdue university. He shows that such an arrangement will benefit both the producer and consumer in that it will tend to increase the consumption of healthful foods and at the same time reduce the price to the consumer. The bulletin shows that the farmer can realize a reasonable profit for his labor, he can likewise benefit every American indirectly by releasing more staple foods for needy Europe.

Prof. Woodburg suggests a bulletin board in front of the farm home as a means of notifying the public that he engaged in the business. It is possible, he shows, to display a list of articles for sale and their prices. The bulletin calls attention to the fact that some farmers have a succession of fruits and vegetables in sufficient quantity to make the roadside market a continuous source of profit during the growing season.

Crops are reasonably good this year, including that of inventive geniuses who can end the war by the pressing of a button.

What a jolt it would be to paragrapghers if some slacker, forced into service, should suddenly develop the genius of a Grant, or a Joffre, or a Hindenburg! But he won't. He'll be paring spuds in the kitchen.

GERMAN PLANES DESTROYEDTwo of 20 Killing 23 Persons in England Brought Down

(By United Press.)

London, Aug. 13.—Two of the German aeroplanes which raided the coast resort of Southend and other towns Sunday were brought down by British airmen, the admiralty announced today.

The machines were brought down off the coast of Flanders. The admiralty statement of yesterday estimated 20 machines as taking part in the raid which resulted in the death of 23 persons and the injury of 50.

HAVE VISION OF A GOOD FAIR THIS YEAR

Rush County Fair Officials Think Date is Advantageous—Week After State Fair.

LITTLE COMPETITION IS SEEN

Rush county fair officials have visions of a good fair this year. One thing in favor of the fair this year is the fact that it will not have to compete with any fairs in the immediate vicinity. The only fairs the same week as Rush county's—September 11 to 14 inclusive—will be at Lafayette, South Bend, Converse and Warren, all of which are in northern Indiana. Furthermore, the principal fairs the week following are in Ohio. Fair officials believe that many concessions and race horses from the state fair will come here as a convenient stopping place on the way to Ohio. The Shelby county fair is the week preceding the state fair, and it is believed that race horses which cannot be raced at Indianapolis, will be laid up here for a week and entered here.

There is an unusually large number of race horses following the country fairs this year, which gives promise of a good speed program here. There were over two hundred entries at the Middletown fair and equally as many at the Muncie fair last week.

OATS YIELD IS LARGE

Many record yields of oats are being reported as the threshing continues. A seven acre field on the Robert A. Innis farm, northwest of the city, averaged 65 bushels to the acre when threshed Saturday afternoon. The average yield of oats in the county is said to be about thirty bushels to the acre and practically every field threshed thus far in the county greatly exceeds this average.

Peru, Ind., Aug. 13.—It cost Peru township outside of the city $26,76 to educate each of the 342 pupils that attended the schools during the past year.

Come In and Look Over The McCormick Corn Binder

YOUR corn is a valuable crop nowadays. You need all of it, can't afford to waste any, and must use the most economical way to harvest it.

Of course hand cutting is very slow hard work, at a time when help is hardest to get. If the corn is down and tangled, with many short stalks, it is still much slower and more wasteful.

The McCormick corn binder is a wonder for the corn grower. It saves the hardest kind of labor and much time, gathers all your corn — short, long, down, tangled — into neat, easily-handled bundles. It is easy on the horses, convenient for the driver.

The more careful a buyer you are, the surer you are of buying a McCormick. Come in and see it.

CROWD LARGEST IN HISTORY OF CHAUTAUQUA EXCEPT ONE

the German to advance evil if it is for the benefit of mankind. He pointed out that the Germans are taught that war is a holy thing, is the handmaiden of "Kulture" and a weapon of God. The senator said that practically every German youth is taken to the altar and pledged to serve the state no matter what it calls on him to do.

Senator Watson read from the statement of a professor in the University of Berlin made a year before the war began, in which the professor said that "the more German Kulture remains faithful to itself, the better it will be able to enlighten the foreign nations it will absorb. Our war expenses will be paid by the vanquished. Our citizens will hold important posts all over the world and our colonies will extend to the farthest corners of the world."

"In this country," the senator continued, "we believe the government is for the people, but in Germany they believe the people are for the government. The one outstanding idea in Germany is to develop the individual to the highest state of efficiency so he can best serve the state."

Senator Watson recalled how Bismarck became premier of Prussia and that his first conquest was the crushing of Austria; how he saw the greatest enemy of German government were the popular ideas coming France and put the government seal on every French influence. He recalled how Bismarck crushed France after getting England and Russia on the verge of a war so they could not protest and how France to the astonishment of the world paid its war indemnity of one billion in a year; how, when France recovered, the present kaiser rushed to his grandmother, Queen Victoria of England and asked permission to crush her again, but she replied she was more afraid of the kaiser than of France.

"The Germans," he continued, adhere to the Darwinian theory of the survival of the fittest—it is no business of the weak fellow to stand in the way of the strong. That is what took them into Belgium and France and will take them into any other nation. They choose a splendid time when England was on the verge of a revolution, Russia was disintegrating and France six billion dollars in debt. But

"God works mysteriously his miracles to perform."

"And the Irish got together when the empire was in danger. France revived and turned back the Germans at the Marne."

Senator Watson declared unless Russia gets back on her feet, the war will last five years more, America will have to send an army of five million men and will spend a hundred billion dollars.

"Never such a spectre hovered over a nation," he continued, "but we can't back out now. If we did we would deserve the condemnation of every people. We must go forward. What if Germany should win? She would eventually seek conquest in America. We have to whip Germany to save ourselves."

Lieut. Peat presented a vivid picture of the anguish of the man in the trenches to the waist in mud for three or four days at a time. He described Germany's first attack with poisonous gas when he was in trenches before Ypres and the horrible death his own comrades met.

Lieut. Peat's description of his experiences began with the time he volunteered in Canada. He said his company was in the trenches within three months after the war began. The lieutenant's description of what he experienced the first night in the trenches when he volunteered for listening duty in "No-man's land" portrayed only the funny side of the situation.

"In that terrible winter of 1914-1915 in Flanders, when we were stretched out there," he said, "a thin line of defense without a single reserve or a gun to help us, why did not the Germans attack us? I will tell you why: it was because an all-seeing God protected us. If we had been attacked, we would have been wiped off the face of the earth."

Lieut. Peat spoke feelingly of the comradery that developed in the trenches and said that the war was a Godsend to the young men of America because on duty they will learn what the brotherhood of man is.

"A man marries a woman," he said, "so she can do the little things for him, but in the trenches, the big rough fellows do the little things for one another."

"Write, write, write," was the admonition of the lieutenant to the mothers, sweethearts, fathers, brothers and sisters of the "Sammies" who go to the trenches. He said he could not make forcible enough the good cheer a letter brought. He said men laid down their mess or even parcels of good things for a letter. He pictured the despair of a British soldier who received no mail when his comrades did.

Lieut. Peat was wounded twice, the first time lying out two days and night before he was found. He said every soldier knew, "he just couldn't die if he were found after being wounded," because only two and a half soldiers out of each hundred wounded ever die. The first time his right lung and a few ribs were blown out and his right arm disabled, but he seemed very much of a man yet. Lieut. Peat spoke of the wonderful work of the Red Cross and how it did not distinguish between German and allied wounded.

COMPANY B'S MESS FUND IS NEAR $900

Addition of $163.50 Contributed at Chautauqua Raises Total—$35.97 For Other Unit

NOTHING FROM CONNERSVILLE

A total of $199.47 for the mess funds of Company B and the sanitary detachment was raised yesterday afternoon at the chautauqua. The money was divided on a per capita basis between the two organizations, Company B, with 150 men receiving $163.50 and the sanitary detachment with thirty-three men getting $35.97.

This donation to Company B's mess fund brought the fund total up to $900. Several reports are yet to be made and it is expected that the fund will be well over the $1,000 mark by the time it is closed. At least $500 was promised from Connersville but thus far no report has been received regarding the progress of the fund there.

KEEP YOUNG

People with bad backs and weak kidneys are apt to feel old at sixty. Many old folks says Doan's Kidney Pills help them keep young. Here's a Rushville case.

A. M. Younger, retired farmer, 828 W. Tenth St., Rushville, says: "I have been using Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for about ten years and they have done me good. When a man gets as old as I, he is bound to have more or less trouble with the kidneys. At times I have a dull ache across the small of my back and it gets weak and lame. Then the kidney secretions are too frequent in passage, causing me to get up at night. Every time I have been this way, I have procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Johnson's Drug Store, and they never fail to relieve me in a short time."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Younger uses. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—(Adv.)

on the grounds of dependents and his neighbor was given a discharge on similar grounds, the first man could take an appeal and cause the case of the man who was discharged to be taken up by the district board. The new ruling offers a chance for those inclined "to get even" an opportunity.

CALLS FLOOR LEADERS OF SENATE AND HOUSE

Governor Goodrich Takes First Step Today Towards Calling Special Legislature Session

COAL EMBARGO IN PROSPECT

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 13.—First steps towards calling the Indiana legislature into special session to legislate against "outrageous" coal prices were taken by Governor Goodrich today when he summoned the floor leaders of both houses for a conference at which definite plans for the extra session will be mapped out.

It is the governor's plan to determine the house and senate committee to which the coal bill would be referred and to confer with the ranking members of the committee regarding details of the legislation.

It was hinted in official circles today that the proposed bill would be sufficiently broad to permit the governor not only to fix the price of coal in Indiana but also to establish an embargo on shipments to points outside of the state to protect Indiana consumers.

the new order automatically takes the appeal. The reason for the new order is given because of the large number of discharges on the grounds of dependents.

The final disposition of the cases, therefore, is with the district board and until definite action is taken the men given discharges will not know exactly where they stand.

A section in the law was found this morning to apply to the case of Robert B. Carr of near New Salem. Carr was drafted for the army and his name certified to the district board for service. In the meantime he was appointed to the second officers training camp, which opens Aug. 27. The question arose as to priority. The ruling found in the regulations sets out that the war department has the prior call and that a man to take the officers training must certify his appointment to the board and this lets him escape the draft. If, however, he fails to get a commission, he is then subject to the draft. Carr, however, will count as one man towards Rush county's quota, while he is in the training camp.

WILL BID FAREWELL TO THE TWO UNITS FRIDAY

grounds where the remainder of the medical detachments of the Indiana National Guard are mobilized and in training.

Plans are being formulated today to serve the soldiers a chicken dinner in the corridors of the court house after the meeting. The chickens must be donated. They will be accepted dead or alive, dressed or undressed.

There was a feeling expressed Sunday that Rush county should in some way, in addition to what had already been done, express its appreciation of the fine thing the men of Company B and the medical unit had done. A committee meeting was called by the business men's organizations and plans outlined for the farewell.

Captain Kiplinger was consulted and said that Friday would probably be the last opportunity because he was expecting to be ordered to Hattiesburg at any time, although he has no idea just when the order will come. A. L. Riggs has consented to try to have Governor Goodrich here for the meeting.

Secretary Bogue, of the business men's organization, yesterday wrote the leading business men in Greencastle and Connersville urging them to advertise the event and bring a crowd here because there are a number of men from Decatur and Fayette counties in Company B. It is the hope of those who originated the movement that this will be a practical demonstration of what Rush county thinks of the two volunteer organizations and none can express their appreciation more than by attending and bringing everyone they can.

Lieut. Peat Entertains and Impresses Audience With Humorous And Horrible Side of War

The Rush county chautauqua closed yesterday with the biggest crowd in the history of the assembly with the exception of the day William Jennings Bryan spoke here a few years ago. Almost fifteen hundred single admission tickets were sold Sunday, which was known as "War Sunday."

It was not "War Sunday" in name only; it was in reality a day when the seriousness of the war was impressed on the twenty-five hundred or more persons present by an analysis of the causes and the present status of the war by Senator James E. Watson and a description of actual warfare as it is conducted in the twentieth century by a man who saw service in the trenches in Flanders for two years.

All the abandonment of the soldier who has seen war in all its horror was expressed by every word and action of Lieutenant Harold R. Peat of the Canadian army who spoke in the afternoon following Senator Watson. He pictured largely the humorous things, the light side of the war and dwelt only briefly on the horrible side, the atrocities of the Germans.

Mrs. Peat, who has been through a number of Zeppelin raids, was to speak on the same program with her youthful husband, but the afternoon program was so long that her talk was postponed until night. About six o'clock however, Lieut. and Mrs. Peat received a telegram to leave at once and they had to depart.

The Chicago Operatic company gave the full program last night as was advertised. Each member of the company was a gifted soloist and a varied program of music was offered. In addition to vocal solos, duets and trios, there were solos, duets and trios on the violin, cello and piano. Both the afternoon and evening programs were liberally applauded and each number made necessary an encore.

The attendance of the sanitary detachment and Company B at the afternoon session lent color to "War Sunday." Seats in front in the center of the Coliseum were reserved for the boys in khaki. As each unit entered the audience stood and sang "America," to the accompaniment of the Chicago musicians. As an appreciation of the act of the soldiers in volunteering to serve their country, the afternoon audience contributed $199.47 to be divided proportionately between the two units and applied to their mess funds.

"Since coming to Indiana and before in hundreds of letters I was apprised that this was not a popular war," said Senator Watson. "I voted for this war and I felt it my duty to find out if it were true. I did learn it was so for certain well defined reasons, but that when the results of these reasons are explained, the reasons will disappear.

"This is not a popular war because no army is marching upon us and no navy is training its guns on our shores. It is not a popular war because the reasons for the war have not been clearly defined from an American standpoint."

"We did not go to war to establish the route of the railroad to Bagdad; we did not go to war to fix the boundary of Alsace-Lorraine; we did not go to war to free the Irish from the iron rule of England; we did not go to war because we were attacked by Germany. We did not attack Germany. She murdered our citizens at sea. She marked off a space 1,400 miles wide and said all ships looked alike to her, whether they be English battleships to destroy German vessels or Red Cross ships of mercy. This is not a war of aggression; it is not a war for indemnities; rather it is a war for the freedom of the seas.

"That is primarily the reason for the United States going to war, but I want it to ring through the chambers of the soul of every American boy who is making a sacrifice for his country that he is fighting for America and the glory of the American flag. While we entered on this war for the preservation of American institutions and the sanctification of American lives and liberties, we have no right to say what sort of a government Germany shall set up. But we do have the right to follow up Germany when she attacks us, to fight her, disarm her, crush her and say that she shall not do anything like this to us again."

Senator Watson was frequently applauded during his speech and when he appeared on the stage while being introduced, a flood of applause interrupted Dr. Ellis who was speaking.

Senator Watson declared that "age old ideas as broad as humanity and as deep as the ages are involved in the war." He recalled that the year Napoleon met his Waterloo—1815—Otto Von Bismarck was born in Germany and within 40 years was the world's greatest diplomat. It was he, the senator said, who shaped German thought based on a false philosophy, which is largely responsible for this war. He showed by reading from German histories that duplicity, fraud and deceit are the very essence of German diplomacy.

"But America changed this," he declared. "We stood for shirt-sleeve diplomacy. We announced that we proposed to say what we meant in as few words as possible and back it up by going to war if necessary."

The senator asserted that the whole campaign of intrigue in Germany was founded on the religious belief that God is leading them in every act of this war. He showed that it is the philosophy of

NEXT SOCIAL WILL BE HELD AT MANILLA

Rushville Merchants Will Start Community Socials Again Since Chautauqua Closed

ONE AT PLUM CREEK AUG. 31

Now that the chautauqua is over, Rushville merchants are making plans for the balance of the community festivals which are to be held this month and next. The social for this week will take place at Manilla on Wednesday night. The merchants are preparing to take a large crowd and John A. Titworth will make a short talk.

The merchants have accepted the invitation to hold a social at the Plum Creek Christian church Friday evening, August 31. The Sunday schools of the county will hold an all-day meeting at Plum Creek on that day and the Rev. Archibald Erickson of Carthage, president of the county Sunday schools, has invited the merchants to hold a social record for wheat speaks well for

Modern Appliance Co. Officers Will Make Reports Tuesday, 8 P. M.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Modern Appliance company has been called for Tuesday night at 8 o'clock in the assembly room of the court house. The meeting is important and all stockholders are urged to attend. A complete report of the officers will be made at this time and the financial condition of the company will be thoroughly explained to the stockholders. Individual letters were sent out today to the stockholders notifying them of the meeting.

TO BID FAREWELL TO THE TWO UNITS

Rush County Will Say Good-Bye to The Men Who Have Volunteer ed on Friday Afternoon

MEETING ARRANGED FOR THEM

Governor Goodrich Will be Invited to Speak—Stores to Close During Celebration

Arrangements are being made to bid farewell to Company B and the medical detachment here next Friday afternoon. An invitation will be extended to Governor James P. Goodrich to speak.

The parting meeting will be held on the court house lawn, probably about three o'clock, when Rush county will say good-bye to the men who have volunteered and upheld the honor of the county.

Will M. Bliss has been appointed general chairman and he in turn appointed committees on finance, program, decorations and general arrangements. An effort will be made to have every store in Rushville closed during the ceremony. All business houses will be urged to decorate for the occasion.

The prospect is that this week will be the last in Rushville for Company B because it was one of the ten Indiana National Guard units certified to the federal government as ready to proceed to Huntington, Miss., to help prepare Camp Shelby for the guardsmen of Indiana and Kentucky. Further evidence that Company B will soon depart is found in the fact that the company has been mustered into the federal service and all men have been given the federal physical examination.

The medical detachment may leave at any time. Saturday four of the officers were called to Indianapolis, which again gave rise to the story that the unit would likely be transferred to the state fair wheat futures.

RUSH COUNTY BANNER WHEAT PRODUCING COUNTY IN THE STATE, ESTIMATES SHOW

Crop This Year Will Amount to 1,062,340 Bushels, Department of Agriculture Believes

NO OTHER COUNTY IS NEAR

Rush county led the state this year in the production of wheat, according to an estimate just made by the department of agriculture. The crop report estimates that this county produced 1,062,340 bushels of wheat in the harvest just closing. Rush county is so far ahead in the production of wheat that there is hardly any comparison with other counties.

Being the banner hog producing county of Indiana and one of the largest in the United States, the record for wheat speaks well for

TETANUS IS FATAL TO BOY

Wayne Ertle, 11, Dies of Disease Due to Splinter in Foot

Wayne Ertle, 11 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ertle, died Sunday morning at eight o'clock at the home of his parents, northeast of the city, from tetanus from running a splinter in his foot. He had been ill for about a week and had been in a critical condition for the past few days. He is survived by his parents and one brother.

The funeral services will be conducted at the late residence Wednesday morning at ten o'clock by the Rev. Mr. Schofield and burial will take place in East Hill.

ONE MILL HERE IS AFFECTED BY ORDER

Food Administration Will Compel All With 100 Barrels Daily Capacity to Have License

$2 WHEAT APPLIES NEXT YEAR

Committee Will Establish Fair Price For This Year's Crop—Likely to be Reduced

Under the plan announced by the food administration for controlling wheat, flour and bread, all mills and elevators with a capacity of over 100 barrels daily will be compelled to take out a government license, effective September 1. The C. G. Clark and Son mill of this city will be affected by the order.

Local elevator men take the announcement to mean that if wheat prices do not stop their fluctuating the government will take over the whole 1917 crop and the measures just announced are a preparatory step in this direction.

Establishing of buying agencies at the principal terminals, licensing of elevators and mills, fixing of a price to be considered fair, regulation of the middle men and of grain exchanges, with the elimination of trading in futures are the chief features of the plan. It is pointed out that the minimum price of $2 a bushel for wheat does not affect the 1917 crop and is effective in 1918.

The conditions of the license required of the mills coming under the order is that only reasonable and customary charges shall be made for warehouse service, that no wheat shall be stored for more than thirty days without the approval of the food administration, that certain information as to receipts and shipments shall be supplied regularly. In addition to this the grain exchanges of the country are to be asked to suspend all dealings in wheat futures.

FIRST STEP TO LOWER THE PRICE OF BREAD

Hoover Begins Drive on High Prices Today—Second Step to Stabilize Canned Goods

NOTICE SENT WHEAT BARONS

(By United Press.) Washington, Aug. 13.—Herbert Hoover today began his drive on high prices. His first effort is directed towards lowering and stabilizing the price of the American loaf. His next step will be to stabilize the price of canned goods, meats and other foodstuffs.

He started today by serving notice on wheat barons that he will vigorously enforce the food control bill. He called upon elevators and millers, distributors and bakers to restrict their margins of profits.

To insure response Hoover will issue licenses only to those elevators and millers who guarantee to charge a reasonable price, to store no wheat more than thirty days without his approval and to submit regular reports on receipts and shipments.

The production of rye in the county was 42,041 bushels, according to the crop report. Montgomery county led in the production of rye with 136,140 bushels.

Floyd Kirklin of Muncie spent the week-end here with friends.

First of New Army to Start to Camp Sept. 5

(By United Press.)

Washington, Aug. 13.—The national army will move to cantonments in three main increments—of thirty percent each, September 5, September 15 and September 30—the provost marshal general's office announced today.

The last ten per cent of the drafted men will follow as soon after September 30 as possible.

Drafted persons whose religious beliefs prohibit their making war will be forwarded to mobilization camps to make up part of the quota from their districts and will be assigned as non-combatants, Provost Marshal General Crowder announced today.

REGULAR ROUTINE OF DRILL RESUMED

NO MORE EQUIPMENT IS HERE

Camp Edward H. Wolfe, Aug. 13.—The regular routine of drill and work was resumed here today, after several days rest on account of the various vaccinations. All of the men have apparently recovered from the effects of the vaccinations, excepting for a few sore arms.

The typhoid and paratyphoid vaccinations administered Saturday had its effects on the men Saturday night and Sunday. About twenty-five men were sick Saturday night and many were not feeling the best all day yesterday. But this morning the men appeared better and the regular program was followed.

The day was started with a hike into Rushville. For the most part the men were glad to be at work again. A vacation was declared at the camp Saturday afternoon and most of the company spent the afternoon and evening in Rushville. No more equipment has been received and there is nothing definite as to when it will be.

For instance, if a man drawn in the list believes he should have a discharge and is refused by the local board, he can re-open any of the cases heard before his. If one man was refused an exemption

The Roadside Market.

The possibilities for the farmer of a roadside market are outlined in a bulletin written by Prof. C. C. Woodburg, chief in horticulture at Purdue university. He shows that such an arrangement will benefit both the producer and consumer in that it will tend to increase the consumption of healthful foods and at the same time reduce the price to the consumer. The bulletin shows that the farmer can realize a reasonable profit for his labor, he can likewise benefit every American indirectly by releasing more staple foods for needy Europe.

Prof. Woodburg suggests a bulletin board in front of the farm home as a means of notifying the public that he engaged in the business. It is possible, he shows, to display a list of articles for sale and their prices. The bulletin calls attention to the fact that some farmers have a succession of fruits and vegetables in sufficient quantity to make the roadside market a continuous source of profit during the growing season.

Crops are reasonably good this year, including that of inventive geniuses who can end the war by the pressing of a button.

What a jolt it would be to paragrapers if some slacker, forced into service, should suddenly develop the genius of a Grant, or a Joffre, or a Hindenburg! But he won't. He'll be paring spuds in the kitchen.

HAVE VISION OF A GOOD FAIR THIS YEAR

Rush County Fair Officials Think Date is Advantageous—Week After State Fair.

LITTLE COMPETITION IS SEEN

Rush county fair officials have visions of a good fair this year. One thing in favor of the fair this year is the fact that it will not have to compete with any fairs in the immediate vicinity. The only fairs the same week as Rush county's—September 11 to 14 inclusive—will be at Lafayette, South Bend, Converse and Warren, all of which are in northern Indiana. Furthermore, the principal fairs the week following are in Ohio. Fair officials believe that many concessions and race horses from the state fair will come here as a convenient stopping place on the way to Ohio. The Shelby county fair is the week preceding the state fair, and it is believed that race horses which cannot be raced at Indianapolis, will be laid up here for a week and entered here.

There is an unusually large number of race horses following the county fairs this year, which gives promise of a good speed program here. There were over two hundred entries at the Middletown fair and equally as many at the Muncie fair last week.

OATS YIELD IS LARGE

Many record yields of oats are being reported as the threshing continues. A seven acre field on the Robert A. Innis farm, northwest of the city, averaged 65 bushels to the acre when threshed Saturday afternoon. The average yield of oats in the county is said to be about thirty bushels to the acre and practically every field threshed thus far in the county greatly exceeds this average.

Peru, Ind., Aug. 13.—It cost Peru township outside of the city $26,76 to educate each of the 342 pupils that attended the schools during the past year.

Come In and Look Over The McCormick Corn Binder

YOUR corn is a valuable crop nowadays. You need all of it, can't afford to waste any, and must use the most economical way to harvest it.

Of course hand cutting is very slow hard work, at a time when help is hardest to get. If the corn is down and tangled, with many short stalks, it is still much slower and more wasteful.

The McCormick corn binder is a wonder for the corn grower. It saves the hardest kind of labor and much time, gathers all your corn—short, long, down, tangled—into neat, easily-handled bundles. It is easy on the horses, convenient for the driver.

The more careful a buyer you are, the surer you are of buying a McCormick. Come in and see it.

the German to advance evil if it is for the benefit of mankind. He pointed out that the Germans are taught that war is a holy thing, is the handmaiden of "Kulture" and a weapon of God. The senator said that practically every German youth is taken to the altar and pledged to serve the state no matter what it calls on him to do.

Senator Watson read from the statement of a professor in the University of Berlin made a year before the war began, in which the professor said that "the more German Kulture remains faithful to itself, the better it will be able to enlighten the foreign nations it will absorb. Our war expenses will be paid by the vanquished. Our citizens will hold important posts all over the world and our colonies will extend to the farthest corners of the world."

"In this country," the senator continued, "we believe the government is for the people, but in Germany they believe the people are for the government. The one outstanding idea in Germany is to develop the individual to the highest state of efficiency so he can best serve the state."

Senator Watson recalled how Bismarck became premier of Prussia and that his first conquest was the crushing of Austria; how he saw the greatest enemy of German government were the popular ideas coming France and put the government seal on every French influence. He recalled how Bismarck crushed France after getting England and Russia on the verge of a war so they could not protest and how France to the astonishment of the world paid its war indemnity of one billion in a year; how, when France recovered, the present kaiser rushed to his grandmother, Queen Victoria of England and asked permission to crush her again, but she replied she was more afraid of the kaiser than of France.

"The Germans," he continued, adhere to the Darwinian theory of the survival of the fittest—it is no business of the weak fellow to stand in the way of the strong. That is what took them into Belgium and France and will take them into any other nation. They choose a splendid time when England was on the verge of a revolution, Russia was disintegrating and France six billion dollars in debt. But

"And the Irish got together when the empire was in danger. France revived and turned back the Germans at the Marne."

Senator Watson declared unless Russia gets back on her feet, the war will last five years more, America will have to send an army of five million men and will spend a hundred billion dollars.

"Never such a spectre hovered over a nation," he continued, "but we can't back out now. If we did we would deserve the condemnation of every people. We must go forward. What if Germany should win? She would eventually seek conquest in America. We have to whip Germany to save ourselves."

Lieut. Peat presented a vivid picture of the anguish of the man in the trenches to the waist in mud for three or four days at a time. He described Germany's first attack with poisonous gas when he was in trenches before Ypres and the horrible death his own comrades met.

Lieut. Peat's description of his experiences began with the time he volunteered in Canada. He said his company was in the trenches within three months after the war began. The lieutenant's description of what he experienced the first night in the trenches when he volunteered for listening duty in "No-man's land" portrayed only the funny side of the situation.

"In that terrible winter of 1914-1915 in Flanders, when we were stretched out there," he said, "a thin line of defense without a single reserve or a gun to help us, why did not the Germans attack us? I will tell you why; it was because an all-seeing God protected us. If we had been attacked, we would have been wiped off the face of the earth."

Lieut. Peat spoke feelingly of the comradeship that developed in the trenches and said that the war was a Godsend to the young men of America because on duty they will learn what the brotherhood of man.

"A man marries a woman," he said, "so she can do the little things for him, but in the trenches, the big rough fellows do the little things for one another."

"Write, write, write," was the admonition of the lieutenant to the mothers, sweethearts, fathers, brothers and sisters of the "Sammies" who go to the trenches. He said he could not make forcible enough the good cheer a letter brought. He said men laid down their mess or even parcels of good things for a letter. He pictured the despair of a British soldier who received no mail when his comrades did.

Lieut. Peat was wounded twice, the first time lying out two days and night before he was found. He said every soldier knew, "he just couldn't die if he were found after being wounded," because only two and a half soldiers out of each hundred wounded ever die. The first time his right lung and a few ribs were blown out and his right arm disabled, but he seemed very much of a man yet. Lieut. Peat spoke of the wonderful work of the Red Cross and how it did not distinguish between German and allied wounded.

"In this country," the senator continued, "we believe the government is for the people, but in Germany they believe the people are for the government. The one outstanding idea in Germany is to develop the individual to the highest state of efficiency so he can best serve the state."

KEEP YOUNG

People with bad backs and weak kidneys are apt to feel old at sixty. Many old folks says Doan's Kidney Pills help them keep young. Here's a Rushville case.

A. M. Younger, retired farmer, 828 W. Tenth St., Rushville, says: "I have been using Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for about ten years and they have done me good. When a man gets as old as I, he is bound to have more or less trouble with the kidneys. At times I have a dull ache across the small of my back and it gets weak and lame. Then the kidney secretions are too frequent in passage, causing me to get up at night. Every time I have been this way, I have procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Johnson's Drug Store, and they never fail to relieve me in a short time."

Price 60¢ at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Younger uses. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. —(Adv.)

on the grounds of dependents and his neighbor was given a discharge on similar grounds, the first man could take an appeal and cause the case of the man who was discharged to be taken up by the district board. The new ruling offers a chance for those inclined "to get even" an opportunity.

Mr. Gary has looked over some of the papers, but has not decided on taking appeals, especially since

Governor Goodrich Takes First Step Today Towards Calling Special Legislature Session

COAL EMBARGO IN PROSPECT

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 13.—First steps towards calling the Indiana legislature into special session to legislate against "outrageous" coal prices were taken by Governor Goodrich today when he summoned the floor leaders of both houses for a conference at which definite plans for the extra session will be mapped out.

It is the governor's plan to determine the house and senate committee to which the coal bill would be referred and to confer with the ranking members of the committee regarding details of the legislation.

It was hinted in official circles today that the proposed bill would be sufficiently broad to permit the governor not only to fix the price of coal in Indiana but also to establish an embargo on shipments to points outside of the state to protect Indiana consumers.

the new order automatically takes the appeal. The reason for the new order is given because of the large number of discharges on the grounds of dependents.

The final disposition of the cases, therefore, is with the district board and until definite action is taken the men given discharges will not know exactly where they stand.

A section in the law was found this morning to apply to the case of Robert B. Carr of near New Salem. Carr was drafted for the army and his name certified to the district board for service. In the meantime he was appointed to the second officers training camp, which opens Aug. 27. The question arose as to priority. The ruling found in the regulations sets out that the war department has the prior call and that a man to take the officers training must certify his appointment to the board and this lets him escape the draft. If, however, he fails to get a commission, he is then subject to the draft. Carr, however, will count as one man towards Rush county's quota, while he is in the training camp.

WILL BID FAREWELL TO THE TWO UNITS FRIDAY

grounds where the remainder of the medical detachments of the Indiana National Guard are mobilized and in training.

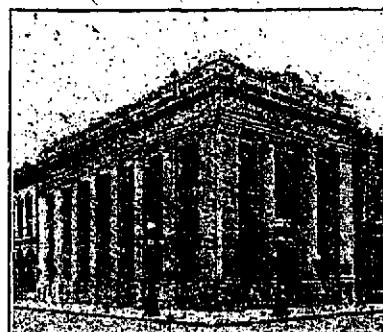

Plans are being formulated today to serve the soldiers a chicken dinner in the corridors of the court house after the meeting. The chickens must be donated. They will be accepted dead or alive, dressed or undressed.

There was a feeling expressed Sunday that Rush county should in some way, in addition to what had already been done, express its appreciation of the fine thing the men of Company B and the medical unit had done. A committee meeting was called by the business men's organizations and plans outlined for the farewell.

Captain Kiplinger was consulted and said that Friday would probably be the last opportunity because he was expecting to be ordered to Hattiesburg at any time, although he has no idea just when the order will come. A. L. Rigg has consented to try to have Governor Goodrich here for the meeting.

Secretary Bogue, of the business men's organization, yesterday wrote the leading business men in Greensburg and Connersville urging them to advertise the event and bring a crowd here because there are a number of men from Decatur and Fayette counties in Company B. It is the hope of those who originated the movement that this will be a practical demonstration of what Rush county thinks of the two volunteer organizations and none can express their appreciation more than by attending and bringing everyone they can.
